

Fair Processing Notice:

The principles relating to the processing of personal data

The School shall comply with the principles as stated in Article 5 of the GDPR. All staff must adhere to and comply with these principles at all times when processing any personal data as part of their work.

(see data protection policy)